to believe you CAN Live Life FREE!

Houston, TX—A timely message for those struggling with hurts, habits, hang-ups, addictions, and limitations. Everyone faces limitations and challenges to living a life of true freedom, and this book will teach you how to Live Life FREE in every area of your life! You may be facing challenges that make you feel confined, controlled or even owned by unseen forces such as fear, debt, strongholds, pleasure, love of money, possessions, greed, your profession—even your ministry! What starts out in life as a simple attraction, may lead to habitual, limiting behaviors that can become enslaving. Only God can truly set you free in your mind, will, and emotions to be all He has created you to be.

Renée Branson, an ordained minister at Lakewood Church and founder/director of Mountain Top Ministries, Inc. in Houston, Texas, invites you to explore a unique and refreshing perspective in her new book Live Life FREE! Overcoming Life's Limitations (A Mountain Top Ministries Publication, November 2018).

Looking for a change in the course of your life? This incredible book of instruction is replete with Q & A at the end of each section to help you take immediate action toward transformation.

About the Author:

Renee Branson is an ordained Christian minister of the gospel of Jesus Christ at Lakewood Church/Joel Osteen Ministries, and founder/director of Mountain Top Ministries, Inc. in Houston, Texas. She is a seasoned minister of the Word of God and prophetic Bible teacher, who has traveled in over 30 nations in Europe, the Far East, India, Africa, the Arctic, Central and South America, North America, Australia, and various islands. Renée's joy is bringing messages of salvation, healing, deliverance, prosperity, and the Spirit-filled life to multitudes in the valley of decision.

Employed by Lakewood Church for over 36 years, Renée served 17 years as personal secretary to the late Pastor John Osteen, co-founder of Lakewood Church, in missions, publications, and pastoral care. Renée has continued to serve under Pastor Joel Osteen in varied capacities as a Stephen Ministry Trainer, Crisis Chaplain, and coordinator in various departments in missions, pastoral care, disaster response, donor relations, and Joel Osteen Ministries' Generation Hope Project®. She currently serves as an executive assistant in Joel Osteen Ministries community outreach, office of special projects. Renée interfaces regularly with leaders in the Houston community, state and national leaders, missionaries, and corporate executives from diverse professions under the direction of Jackelyn Viera Iloff, Strategic Advisor and spokesperson for Lakewood Church and Joel Osteen Ministries on community and church-related issues.

Renée has volunteered in community service since her early teens teaching, preaching, speaking, and conducting classroom instruction. At Lakewood Church she volunteers as a Sunday School teacher, prayer partner, short-term missionary, in mentoring, pastoral care, emergency church member calls, in food and disaster relief distributions, conducting weddings and funerals, and in the ministry of helps.

As Founder/Director of Mountain Top Ministries, Renée has supported Christian churches and ministries around the world and has personally ministered God's Word for more than 30 years. She has taught the Bible in churches, evangelistic conferences, seminars, pastors conferences,
